You can't go wrong with any 'Feist' Song

The Four Big Song Hits!

You'll want them for your piano, talking machine, or player piano—why not get them now? They are sweeping the country. Everybody wants to hear them, to sing them, and to dance them. They've caught on strong.

Goodbye Broadway, Hello France!

When you play and sing this song, you'll know why the regiments on their way to France adopted it as their own. In the language of the boys—"It's got everything." The big hit of the New Year. A wonderful fox-trot or one-step. By Reiner, Davis and Baskette.

Mother, Dixie and You

A song of Dixieland. A beautiful melody wedded to words that are sure to take you back home. And not a badly sentimental song, either, but one that has life and spirit. Played quickly, it is an irresistible fox-trot. By Johnson and Santy.

Just try over the choruses printed below and then you'll know why song experts consider these four songs in a class by themselves.

You've simply got to have them if you want to play and sing the latest and most popular tunes—the four really big hits of the year.

Vaudeville performers are singing them in hundreds of cities to thousands and thousands of people who applaud vigorously, thus showing their approval.

If you haven't heard them in your city as yet be sure to tell your Theatre Manager you would like to hear them sung. He will be glad to accommodate you. And get all four of them for yourself, today.

Wavell's Butterfly.
At the "Yankee" Military Ball.
Chorus: We Owe a Lot to You. A new novelty song.
King Kong. The Oriental melody you hear everywhere.
Our Own Beloved Land. A broad refrain that wins the crowd. See Victor Record No. 4111.
If I Had a Son for Each Star in "Old Glory."
Sing Baby.
Sing, Singers. Goldberg's famous cartoon set to music.
Father Was Right. Another of Goldberg's "Cartoon in Tune."
Backwards. Sophie Tucker's great "Jazz" song.
The Garden of Allah. Feature song of Selig Polyscope Film of same name.
Mummy Museum's "Poison Party."
There's No Sunshine in the Wall That Gives You Water. Another "Don't Bore the Band."

I Know I Got More Than My Share.
Keep Your Eye on the Girl You Love.
Indeed Must Be Heaven, for My Mother Came from There.
Don't Bore the Band That's Feeding You. Better than ever.

Where Do We Go from Here?

Another song that our soldier boys are singing everywhere—and most everybody else, too. The Phila. North American says: "The Tipperary of 1917." It started out to be a funny song about "Faddy Mac", who drove a hack—but Faddy enlisted and his song struck the fancy of the soldiers. When some one says, "Where do we go from here?" you'll get his meaning. By Johnson and Wenrich.

There's Something in the Name of Ireland

That the Whole World Seems to Love
To some Ireland means home, to others it means love, to others it means a race of fighting men. But get this song and you'll get an idea why the world loves Ireland. A more beautiful melody hasn't been written in years. By Howard Johnson and Milton Ager.

Practically every music dealer in the United States and Canada will display these songs and reproductions of this advertisement in his window, so that you will know just where you can buy copies.

If you have any difficulty locating a dealer, however, you may order direct from us at 15c. each, or any seven for one dollar. Sent postpaid to any address in the world. A set of 5 attractive post cards FREE with all mail orders of $1.00 or over. Band or orchestra, 25c. each. Male quartette, 10c. each.

Your regular dealer can supply you with these songs for your talking machine or player-piano and any orchestra or band leader will be glad to play any of them for you if requested.

Be sure to hear them and don't miss the pleasure of dancing to these tuneful, fascinating melodies.

Stirring Songs of Love and War

"If I Had A Son for Each Star in Old Glory"

Here's a MOTHER'S song of patriotism that is setting the U. S. A. aflame. It is the prize song of the war. Millions—from Maine to California—are singing it. It is doing its bit by helping recruit regiments for Uncle Sam. Get this song today and enlist your voice for Old Glory. It's a stirring march and a corking one step.

If I Had a Son for each Star in Old Glory

CHORUS

Though God never made men for sol-diers, — Now the clouds of war have burst, — We must pray for the best, and prepare for the test, — Our coun-try must come — first.

"I Called You My Sweetheart"

"Oh, for a love ballad that is different"—cries the public. Here it is. Stars for eyes, roses for cheeks—get this great love song and learn how the angels make sweethearts in Heaven. Its melody is delightfully different. It's a tonic for the blues and a ticket straight thru to Loveland. Try it.

"You Can't Go
Wrong
With Any
'Feist' Song"

CHORUS

They took the stars Out of the blue, dear, Gave them to you, dear, for eyes, — They picked a rose, Cov-ered with dew, dear,
Then made those cheeks, I prize; — They made your
